

Is This Radical Islam's Master Plan to Infiltrate America?

As millions of refugees flee the destruction of their homes, TruNews' Rick Wiles issues a warning about their intentions.

Along with the Christians fleeing persecution, Wiles says there are jihadis deliberately moving among the refugees, "flooding" the Western world.

"It grieves me to see humans treated this way," Wiles says. "But countries are saying, 'We can't handle hundreds of thousands of Muslims coming into our nation.'"

CNN reports millions are flocking to Europe amid the violence in their homelands.

The news site reports France will take in 24,000 in the next two years, and Britain will take in up to 20,000 in the next five years. It was first reported the United States will only accept 1,500 each year, but White House Press Secretary Josh Earnest announced recently President Barack Obama will increase that number to 10,000.

While some migrants are indeed Christians, others may claim conversion to receive refugee status.

It's absolute chaos, Wiles says, which will expand exponentially as the global economy groans toward collapse. Watch the video to see his explanation.
