

Is This the Generation of the Third Temple?

This video features hope in a time of darkness, as the Jewish people mourn the destruction of the first two Jewish Temples, praying for the building of the third Temple.

This gorgeous video begins already with the miraculous. The Jewish people are present, back in the land of their heritage. The children are playing. The land is fertile and the people are returning to the wisdom of the Torah.

What we see here in this video is the culmination of the hopes and prayers of the Jewish people over the last 2000 years since the second Jewish Temple was destroyed. {eoa}

This article originally appeared at .