

Is Trump's Withdrawal From Iran Deal Fulfilling Prophecy?

Prophecy and politics are quickly converging as U.S. President Donald Trump on Tuesday withdrew U.S. involvement in the nuclear deal with Iran, known as the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action (JCPOA), while a conflict between Israel and Iran looms imminent in Syria.

As pundits scratch their heads over this political Gordian knot, Rabbi Pinchas Winston, an end-of-days expert, suggests that “prophetic reverse engineering” makes the solution and outcome of this political dilemma crystal clear.

In background, Trump announced that the U.S. is withdrawing from the deal concerning Iran's nuclear program signed in 2015 with the five permanent members of the United Nations Security Council plus Germany.

In his speech, the president identified Iran as “the leading state sponsor of terror.”
