

‘It Was a Miracle’: Pocket Bible Stops Bullet From Striking Police Officer in the Chest

A Bolivian police officer praised God for sparing his life after his pocket Bible stopped a bullet from entering his chest.

According to the cop in question, the live 9mm round was fired at him from a weapon that has been stolen from the police during clashes between supporters loyal to former President Evo Morales and law enforcement.

The incident occurred in the municipality of Yapacani, eastern Bolivia, as police attempted to calm the protests.
