

Japanese Church Finds Hope Amid Disaster

YWAM continues to partner with local churches and other agencies in Japan to bring help, comfort and hope to the people of Japan in the wake of the earthquake and tsunami which devastated their nation in March. This video looks at how Christians are responding in this nation, how they are finding meaning in the disaster and will inform your prayers for the survivors of the tsunami.