

‘Jesus Saved My Life,’ Says Survivor in Church Van Crash That Killed Three Christians

Three people were killed in a church van crash earlier this week. Four survived.

The members of a small Seventh-Day Adventist church were leaving a church conference on the way to a retreat when their van was hit by another vehicle.

Now, those who lived are looking at how—and why—they survived.

Watch the video to see one man’s perspective.