

Jewish Schoolchildren Observe Moment of Silence for Shooting Victims

(Reuters/Eric Gaillard)

School children attend a religious ceremony and observe a minute of silence at the Jewish school Kerem Menahen in Nice on Tuesday, to pay tribute to the four victims killed by a gunman at a Jewish school in Toulouse on Monday. A gunman on a motorbike shot dead four people, including three children, outside Ozar Hatorah, just days after three soldiers were killed in similar shootings in the same area of southwest France.