

Jim Bakker Personally Brings Food to Starving Victims of This National Tragedy

Hurricane Harvey has devastated millions and left many without basic essentials like food and water. Jim and Lori Bakker stepped in with food and service to some of the neediest communities. See how they're making a difference in this video.