

Jonathan Cahn Prophecies Over Donald Trump

During the Inaugural National Faith Summit, Jonathan Cahn gave a prophetic message to former President Donald Trump.

“Mr. President, I speak of the mystery of your life,” Cahn said to Trump. “You were born on June 14, 1946. From ages past it was appointed that on that day a Scripture would be recited throughout the world.”

Cahn tells Trump that the Scripture recited across the globe on the day of Trump’s birth was about the ushering in of God’s vessel, a trumpet into the world.

“President Trump, you were born into the world to be a trumpet of God, a vessel of the Lord in the hands of God. God called you to walk according to the template; He called you according to the template of Jehu, the warrior king” says Cahn.

Cahn points out that just as Jehu was called to make the Israeli nation great thousands of years ago, so too Trump has been called to make America great.

“Jehu came to the capital city with an agenda to drain the swamp. Jehu formed an alliance with the religious conservatives of the land. So, it was your destiny to do the same. To come to power, Jehu had to prevail against the nation’s former first lady. So, to come to power you had to prevail against the nation’s former first lady. Jehu overturned the cult of Baal by which children were sacrificed. So, God chose you to overturn America's cult of Baal, Roe vs. Wade," Cahn prophesies.

Cahn says that before Trump was ever born, God had a divine destiny and purpose planned out for him. This is all to point to glory of the Lord.

"It will be the last act and maybe America's last chance of redemption. But for that to happen, you must seek Him with all your heart. Follow Him with all your might. Jehu was born to make his nation great again by turning it back to God. So were you," he continues.

The warning for America is that we can only continue to be great if we turn back to God.

"You are a trumpet of God. And the trumpet can only fulfill its purpose if it's filled with the breath of the One who holds it up and blows through it," says Cahn. "God is the One who lifted you up, and He wills that you be filled with a breath of His Spirit. God is calling you to go all out for God, for Him, and if you, then what follows will be the greatest and most glorious part. Then you will do what no president has ever done."

Cahn prophetically declares that if Trump turns His life and His ways completely over to the Lord, then he will be used by God to bring America back to a state of glory to change the world.

"Before I formed you in the womb, I knew you. Before you were born I set you apart. Now arise and shine, for your life is come and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you," he declares.

Dr. Malachi O'Brien, who was in the audience during Cahn's delivery of the prophetic message, says that "The room was charged with light and revelation" when Cahn spoke to Trump.

As we are only a week away from election day, we must press in and pray for Trump, that the Lord's hand would continue to be upon him.
