

Jonathan Cahn's Prophetic Revelation on Pope Francis

The Pope may need to reconsider his current course of theology.

In a message regarding a prophetic sign that took place back in December of 2023, rabbi and New York Times best-selling author Jonathan Cahn unlocked powerful prophetic revelations about the Pope. Now, as we see the Pope denying the truth as Jesus as the only way to God, this message gives insight into what's happening with Pope Francis in the spiritual realm.

"On Dec. 17, Pope Francis was preparing to do something," Cahn says. "To issue that decree that would open the door to homosexuality in Catholic doctrine and practice."

This significant decision is one that came with a prophetic warning sign.

"Catholic doctrine states and Catholic belief has been that the Pope sits in the chair or the office of Peter," Cahn says. "According to that belief, Pope Francis sits in the succession and office and authority of the apostle Peter. There is a statue of Peter, the office of which Francis claims. It stands in South America. The land from which Francis comes. Further, the statue of Peter stands in Argentina. Argentina is the homeland of the Pope. Further, the statue is located in the province of Buenos Aires. Buenos Aires is where the Pope comes from."

This statue of Peter from the Pope's homeland is significant in the fact that it was struck by lightning on the same day that the Catholic church was preparing to issue this decree to accept homosexuality in the Catholic Church. Not only that, but Dec. 17 is also Pope Francis' birthday.

"It wasn't just that the lightning bolt struck the statue; it's what it did," Cahn says.

Before the lightning struck the statue, an image can be seen of it with a halo around the head of the statue, symbolizing holiness. Once the statue was hit by the lightning bolt, the halo appears to have vanished, struck down.

"It removed the sign of holiness on the statue that points to Pope Francis. The sign would say, 'There is no holiness. The act of blessing homosexual couples was an unholy act,'" Cahn says.

Cahn also points out the significance of the right hand of the statue as well.

"The hand is holding the keys, as in the keys of Peter from the Scripture when the Lord says 'I will give you the keys to the kingdom. What you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven. What you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven...' The lightning bolt removed the keys, it melted them away, removed them. And what is that a sign of? The keys are a sign of authority, saying authority is gone," Cahn says.

If the Pope's keys of authority were symbolically disintegrated, his continual move away from righteousness and goodness just keeps becoming more apparent each day. Remember, just because the Pope has stated that "all religions are a path to God,” does not make that true.

The Word of God is living and active, sharper than a double-edged sword and within that Word Jesus tells us that He is the way, the truth, and the life and no one can come to the Father except through Him. Do not be swayed by the ways of this world. This is the time to stand strong and firm, allowing Christ to be the cornerstone of our lives.
