

Finding Yeshua in Unexpected Places

During my pilgrimage to the Holy Land, I saw numerous young people going about their daily lives. I thought to myself how difficult it must be for them to learn about Yeshua, that He was born in their homeland, died on the cross and got up from the grave not far from where many of them live.

But thanks to the unceasing prayers of believers around the world and the efforts of Messianic congregations in Israel, Jewish youth are coming to faith in Messiah. Not only did the Holy Spirit appear in the Upper Room more than 2,000 years ago, He is showing up in Israeli culture and revealing Himself to a new generation of Jews. Click below to watch video.

{youtube}pHpoQHLEi1I{/youtube}

Source: