

Persecuted for Her Faith

Pnina Pie is a successful baker in Tel Aviv, Israel. But when authorities discovered she is also a Messianic Jew, they revoked her kosher license, told other Jews to boycott her bakery and started a campaign to close down her establishment. Pnina took her case all the way to Israel's Supreme Court and won. But that's not the end of the story. To learn why Pnina and others like her suffer for their faith, click below to watch the video.
