

Kamala Harris Anointed by COGIC Bishop

Bishop J. Drew Sheard anointed Kamala Harris during a Sunday morning service at Greater Emmanuel Institutional Church of God in Christ.

Sheard, who is the chief apostle of the Church of God in Christ (COGIC), and the denomination's presiding bishop, anointed Harris after she gave her own brief message.

"Dear God, we thank you now, we thank you for our sister. We thank You for how You have lifted her up. Now, we're asking that You will touch her now. Let Your power be made manifest. We come against the enemy on every hand and we claim the victory," Sheard says.

After proclaiming that the "victory is ours," Sheard prayed for fresh anointing upon Harris.

This comes after Evangelist Donnie Swaggart rebuked Sheard for endorsing Harris, according to the Christian Post.

"When the largest African American Pentecostal denomination, when that leader stands up and said I endorse that woman, he was saying, 'I endorse murder, I endorse homosexuality, I endorse lesbianism, I endorse transgenderism, I endorse every evil that hell could prosper or bring up...' Swaggart says.

Harris recently was found telling pro-life students at one of her rallies that they were at the "wrong rally" after they proclaimed that Jesus is Lord during her promotion of pro-abortion policies.
