

Larry Tomczak's Week in Review: The Olympic Charade and the Unfruitful Deeds of Darkness

"Do not participate in the unfruitful deeds of darkness, but instead even expose them" (Eph.5:11, NAS).

"Regard prisoners as if you were in prison with them. Look on the victims of abuse as if what happened to them had happened to you" (Heb.3:13, MET).

Parallels to Adolf Hitler's 1936 Berlin Olympic charade are chilling.

Events take place alongside prison camps, torture, sterilization and extermination of a million Uyghurs Muslims. Christians, Buddhists and other religious practitioners are persecuted while the Chinese Communist Party projects a sanitized image of a peace-loving positive place for an unsuspecting world.

Human rights groups like Open Doors USA urge us to not watch the Games and legitimize what's taking place behind the scenes.

The Republican China Task Force says: "The 2022 Winter Olympic Games in Beijing will be the first Olympic Games to take place in a country that is conducting an ongoing genocide. Therefore, these games are an unprecedented threat to American values, inalienable human rights and the spirit of the Olympics." {eoa}
