

Morning Rundown: Legendary Preacher Charles Stanley Dies At 90

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Legendary Preacher Charles Stanley Dies At 90

Founder of In Touch Ministries and senior pastor of First Baptist Church in Atlanta for nearly 50 years Charles Stanley died Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. peacefully at his home, his website reported.

Stanley spent 65 years in the ministry, and his website said he modeled his ministry after the apostle Paul's message in Acts 20:24: "Life is worth noting unless I used it for doing the work assigned by me by the Lord Jesus—the work of telling others the Good News about God's mighty kindness and love." (TLB)

Stanley is survived by his son, Andy, and daughter, Becky. Andy Stanley is the senior pastor at North Point Ministries, a nondenominational evangelical Christian church with several campuses across the north metro Atlanta area.

Prophetic Red Heifers Bring Excitement for Renewed Biblical Commandment

Christian attention and support are beginning to increase as the time draws near on the prophetic red heifers second birthday.

Recently, The Voice of Healing Church in Houston, Texas, joined with Boneh, Israel, and The Israel Guys, a Christian non-profit based in Israel, and broadcast their unified support of reinstating the biblical commandment of the red heifer sacrifice.

The event was led by V0H's Pastor Michael Petro and Boneh Israel was represented by Rabbi Itzchak (Tzachi) Mamo, Mo Bareli and Byron Stinson.

California Church Hit with Massive $1.2 Million Fine

 Calvary Christian Fellowship, the San Jose church that has been fighting multiple lawsuits against the Santa Clara County legal system, was just hit with a $1.2 million fine for breaking mask protocols.

Superior Court Judge Evette D. Pennypacker ruled that the church flagrantly broke the county's mask mandates from November 2020 to June 2021.

Things have been so contentious between Calvary and county officials that accusations of spying on the church have made the news cycle in March 2023. {eo}

Bring Charisma magazine home with a subscription today!