

‘Literally Overflowing’: Hundreds of Liberty Students Pack Prayer Chapel for 24 Hours of Revival

Liberty University students are in awe of how God moved on the hearts of hundreds of young people during a 24-hour prayer and worship service held last week.

Liberty’s Office of Spiritual Development usually coordinates 24/7 prayer and other special prayer events throughout the academic year.

But this year, OSD organized a worship and prayer service that coincided with the National Collegiate Day of Prayer last Thursday.

And the turnout shocked the entire student body.
