

Man Arrested After Alleged Online Threats Target Willow Creek Community Church

An Illinois man has been arrested after allegedly posting online threats targeting Willow Creek Community Church, Vernon Hills High School and other individuals, according to reporting by The Christian Post.

The Vernon Hills Police Department announced the arrest of 26-year-old Ryan Kang, who has been charged with two counts of falsely making a terrorist threat.