

Man Wakes From Coma With Vivid Recollection of Jesus, Robes and Angels

A Montana man who was seriously injured in a horrific car accident says that he spent time in heaven after falling deeply unconscious for seven days.

Tom Dolezal was driving through Wolf Creek Canyon in Helena when he collided head-on with another truck pulling a horse trailer. Knocked out and with 22 broken bones, Dolezal is absolutely convinced he saw Jesus Christ in person.

"I flew up into heaven... and heaven is stacked," he told the Liberty County Times. He told the newspaper that he witnessed Jesus walking in a field during his eight-day coma. {eoa}
