

Marco Rubio Demonstrates His Faith in a Spectacular Way When Man Collapses at Rally

Republican hopeful Marco Rubio halted a campaign rally to pray for a person who collapsed in the crowd.

After looking around for a doctor, Rubio took matters into his own hands:

“Father Lord, we thank you for bringing us here together tonight. We ask you to pray for our brother at this moment,” Rubio says from the platform. “We ask that you would put your hand upon him, Lord, and that you would help him deal with whatever circumstances he might be facing.”
