

Mario Murillo: 2025 Is the Opportunity of a Lifetime

2025 just may be a year full of unexpected, beautiful opportunities.

In a recent video, Mario Murillo gave an “End of Year Appeal for 2024” message discussing the kingdom opportunities knocking right at our door in 2025 to bring the glory of God to earth as it is in heaven.

“Something has just happened that has not happened in the United States in over 150 years, and we’re going to hate ourselves if we don’t take advantage of it,” Murillo says. “The election of Donald Trump was far deeper a significant thing than just an election, and the reason that he was voted for by a majority of Americans was spiritual, not just political.”

Murillo contends that the people of the United States are finding their way back to God. During 2024, Murillo saw people on the streets open to the gospel, with crusades taking place in Arizona, New York, Michigan, California and Wisconsin. This year, Murillo’s ministry also built a 20,000 square foot warehouse, a studio, purchased thousands more chairs and three crusade tents, and more, all to allow for more people to be reached with the message of Jesus.

“We had an average of 100,000 people for a four-night crusade,” Murillo says.

During their last crusade, Murillo says the viewership for the event was 1.2 million people. It is this spreading of the ultimate Good News that he says will not and cannot slow down for the sake of America's future.

"The Left is not going to sit back and let this defeat go unnoticed," he says. "They have billions of what they'll spend to regain control."

So, what is the church to do during this new year?

"God has opened the doors," says Murillo. "Vast numbers of human souls are ripening all around you."

Currently, it is Murillo's goal to get as many crusades up and running in the U.S. as possible because he believes we are in the middle of a turnaround from the darkness. Jesus told us that the harvest was plentiful, but that the laborers were few. In 2025, we must answer God's call toward righteousness, standing firm in the faith and sharing the gospel however and whenever and wherever we possibly can.
