

Mario Murillo Sparks a Mighty Movement of God in Middle Tennessee

As I pulled into the church parking lot, it was clear this would be a unique evening. Almost two hours before the scheduled start time, there was already a line of people waiting. The distant lightning and impending rain didn't dampen anyone's spirit.

The anticipation was thick as they weren't there only for Mario. They were there because they knew Jesus would be there.

And He definitely showed up!

Thirty minutes before the scheduled service time, every seat was full, including the extra chairs added in the aisles and around the platform.

Mario spoke an important message to not look for a repeat of the revivals of the past but to look for the new thing that God is about to do. If we try to recreate what has happened before, it will be a cheap imitation. Instead, we need to lean into what God is doing in this hour.

After the message, God began to move through the crowd. Many miraculous healings took place. God touched so many, it would take too long to recount them all. And I'm certain there will be many stories coming telling of all God did and continues to do.

With a room full of people there to see God move, it might have been easy to walk away without an altar call. But Mario made that appeal and hands went up all around the room.

At least 30 people came forward for salvation!

I encourage you to pray for Mario Murillo and for the ministry. This is a unique time and the enemy is fighting hard to stop what God is doing. {eo}
