

Martin Luther King: A Supporter of Israel

He would have been 81 years old today had he not been gunned down on the balcony of the Lorraine Motel in Memphis, Tennessee. But Martin Luther King Jr.'s message of nonviolence, justice and love will never die. It can be heard from the steps of the Lincoln Memorial, where he gave his famous "I Have A Dream" speech, to the mountaintops in Israel. King said, "Bigotry in any form is an affront to us all." Continue to live the dream. Watch video below.

{youtube}hwdYRrWAB9E{/youtube}