

Megachurch Pastor's Son Dies in Freak Motorcycle Accident

The 20-year-old son of a megachurch pastor was killed when his motorcycle collided with another vehicle.

Wesley Ravenhill Aranza was the son of pastors Jacob and Michelle Aranza, pastors of Our Savior's Church in Louisiana.

Wesley Aranza "was an incredibly kind hearted and sensitive young man who passionately loved his family and music more than anything in the world," according to his obituary.

"While Wesley's home going was an unexpected, tragic accident, make no mistake his days, just like all of our days, are numbered by God and Wesley Ravenhill fulfilled 20 years of his God given purpose here on earth," the obituary continues.

A page on Facebook has been set up for friends and family to leave messages for the Aranzas.

Please lift this family up in your prayers as they deal with this loss.
