

Michael Brown Launches TV Show to Answer Tough Questions

Do you have tough questions about the Bible and how it impacts today's society? For years, listeners have been asking Dr. Michael Brown and guests those questions on his radio broadcast, In the Line of Fire.

Now, Brown is launching a television show to take his prophetic perspectives on culture to even more people. Answering Your Toughest Questions With Dr. Michael Brown debuts on July 10. (Click here for more info.)

"The Lord has opened an amazing door for our ministry to launch a brand new TV show—and it will start with a 32-week series on 'Answering Jewish Objections to Jesus,'" Brown says. "Nothing like this has ever been done before on national television, and through our partnership with NRB TV, we will be able to reach tens of millions of Americans every Wednesday night at 7:00 p.m."

Through the broadcast, Brown will tackle the toughest questions asked by believers and non-believers. The show will also feature some of the best debates he's participated in over the years. Brown has debated Jewish rabbis, agnostic professors and gay activists on radio, TV and college campuses. He is widely considered to be the world's foremost Messianic Jewish apologist.

Since coming to faith in 1971 as a 16 year-old, heroin-shooting Jewish rock drummer, Brown has devoted his life to fostering awakening in the church, sparking moral and cultural revolution in the society, raising up gospel laborers for the nations and reaching out to his own Jewish people.

Beyond hosting a nationally syndicated radio broadcast, he is also the president of FIRE School of Ministry and a professor of Bible and Hebrew studies at several leading seminaries. He has preached in more than 25 nations and is the author of 22 books and numerous scholarly and popular articles.
