

Miracle and Healing Testimonies Explode at Mario Murillo's Crusades

God is releasing miracles and healings in unprecedented ways at Mario Murillo's tent crusades.

In a special interview with Charisma Media founder, Stephen Strang, Murillo discussed the exciting details of the healings happening at the crusades, including how many of them will be documented in his film, "Living Proof."

"The miracles that we are seeing are happening on hearts, bodies, nerves growths, people that have been hopelessly ill that had been healed by the power of God," Murillo says. "In the tent itself, people have been healed and left, found out later that their symptoms had vanished. [They] went to their doctor, doctors found out that growth were no longer in their body."

As a hallmark of Murillo's ministry, these events speak to the power of Christ as Savior, healer, redeemer and the One who gives His Spirit to His beloved children. Murillo says it's this power, the power of Christ through the Holy Spirit that moves and compels people to come to God.

"God will give you miracles," Murillo says. "The news of them will go through a neighborhood like no other social media possibly can. And people will come to God."

It's miracles like these where people have been instantly healed, baptized in the Spirit and set free from their chains of bondage that will find their way onto the big screen with "Living Proof."

"We're expecting to overflow the theaters, and for it to take on a life of its own," Murillo says.

He also shares his excitement to showcase the message of the baptism of the Holy Spirit through the film as a core tenet of his ministry and for living the Christian life.

Just as other ministers like pastors Greg Locke and Mike Signorelli have taken the message of the gospel to the theaters, Murillo is now bringing this same expectancy of hope and healing to a lost and broken world. People who would have never stepped into a church or gone to a religious event just may walk into a theater.

Let's pray for all who see this film to gain one clear message from it: with God all things are possible. {eo}
