3 Gateway Church Updates You Need to Know

Gateway Church is currently dealing with more changes amid the outbreak of scandal after Robert Morris admitted to sexual assault of Cindy Clemishire for multiple years starting when she was just 12 years old.

Recently, a lawsuit was filed after a female alleged that she was sexually assaulted during youth group meetings that the church held at The King's University in Southlake near the main church campus, according to WFAA Channel 8.

The lawsuit claims that this happened back in the latter portion of 2016 and into 2017. The claim is that a then a 13-year-old girl was sexually assaulted and groomed by a 17-year-old at the youth group meetings. The alleged offender had turned 18 during this time. The suit further stated that there typically were over 200 children from grades 6-12 there "with little or no supervision by Gateway's youth counselors, pastors, leaders, chaperones or volunteers."

The Mystery of the Nephilim Hybrids

In a recent interview with Charisma Media, author and researcher L.A. Marzulli delved into a range of topics that blur the lines between history, spirituality and the paranormal. Known for his investigations into the Nephilim, Marzulli discussed the mysterious artifacts, ancient legends and the spiritual warfare that he believes still shapes the world we live in today.

One of the intriguing points Marzulli raised was the connection between Mormon beliefs and the Nephilim. He referenced the Mormon narrative of Nephi, who, according to the Book of Mormon, traveled from the Middle East to the Americas. Marzulli suggested that the Nephilim might have also found their way to the Americas, intertwining their history with that of early settlers. "The Nephites are Nephilim," Marzulli asserted. "They did come over, so that's partially true."

Perry Stone's Alarming Dream: A Tsunami is Coming

In a new video warning God's people of what could be heading our way, Perry Stone detailed a dream he had about what's coming for America and how the story of Noah relates to our current situation today.

"Jesus made a statement in Matthew that as it was in the days of Lot and Noah, so will it be at the time of the coming of the Son of Man," Stone says.

He then discusses the emergence of extreme weather patterns that some would consider to be climate change or global warming, but instead Stone says we should view them as the birth pains before the return of Christ.
