Are We Witnessing Bible Prophecy Unfold in Damascus?

The ongoing turmoil in Syria has once again turned global attention toward the ancient city of Damascus, raising a sobering question for Christians: Are we witnessing the fulfillment of biblical prophecy?

As the Syrian Civil War intensifies, reports indicate that Turkish-backed rebel forces, having already captured Aleppo and Hama, are now poised to move toward Damascus—the stronghold of President Bashar al-Assad's regime.

The Bible has long associated Damascus with prophetic warnings. Isaiah 17:1-3 declares: "See, Damascus will cease to be a city; it will become a ruinous heap." This prophecy foretells the city's destruction and desolation, a stark vision that resonates as rebel forces secure towns near Damascus, such as Izraa, and gain control of significant territory in the surrounding Daraa Governorate.

Guarding Against the Coming Great Deception: The 'Immaculate Constellation'

In a recent video, researcher, author and speaker L.A. Marzulli warns Christians about the "coming great deception," urging believers to stay vigilant against the spiritual and prophetic implications of unfolding events.

Marzulli's commentary weaves together the rising prominence of UFO phenomena, prophetic biblical narratives and the deceptive tactics of Satan. His warnings are a wake-up call for the body of Christ to remain grounded in biblical truth and prepare for the return of Jesus.

Suspect Arrested in Drive-by Shooting at Pastor Greg Locke's Home

The quiet community of Mt. Juliet, Tennessee, was shaken on Tuesday, Sept. 3, as news broke of a drive-by shooting targeting the home of Pastor Greg Locke.

Now, a suspect in the shooting has been arrested, Tyler Poole, 20, of Hermitage, Tennessee.

Poole faces serious charges, including one count of aggravated assault, four counts of reckless endangerment with a deadly weapon, and two counts of vandalism. While no injuries were reported when the incident took place, Locke revealed one of his children was in the house at the time of the shooting.
