What Christians Should Know About Alcohol

In a recent Demon Slayer podcast with Isaiah Saldivar, Mike Signorelli, Vlad Savchuk and Alexander Pagani, one of the topics the group discussed was alcohol consumption and the Christian believer.

Answering the question of whether or not Christians should consume alcohol, the group provided biblical keys about why followers of Jesus should be wary of it.

"No, I don't drink, and the reason why I don't drink: One, God delivered me from it. I used to drink almost every single day, and by the grace of God I was delivered the night that I was born again," Saldivar says.

Elementary School Offering 'Satanic Studies'

An elementary school in Marysville, Ohio, is offering a "satanic studies" program.

The Hellion Academy of Independent Learning (HAIL) program serves as a "religious release" period for children. The Satanic Temple operates the program.

June Everett, described by NBC 4 as the "campaign director for the After School Satan Club and an ordained minister for the Satanic Temple," said a parent reached out to the Satanic Temple, requesting a program be implemented at the school.
