Christian Music Legend Mylon LeFevre Dies at 78

Christian music legend and Gospel Music Hall of Fame inductee Mylon LeFevre, the front man for the popular band Broken Heart in the 1980s and 1990s, died Friday, Sept. 8, at the age of 78 after a long bout with cancer.

As a kid, LeFevre performed with his gospel-singing family. But after falling in love with secular rock 'n' roll, he went down a dark path to led to drug addiction. God retrieved him from that lifestyle and he began to make his mark in contemporary Christian music.

In 1980, LeFevre attended a concert by the CCM group 2nd Chapter of Acts. Buck Herring, the group's leader, led the people in prayer and LeFevre praying along and submitted to Jesus as the Lord of his life.

The War on Our Children Is Even Worse Than We Thought

I'm going to omit a few words from the opening sentence of an article posted by the U.K.'s Christian Voice in order to drill home a point. The first sentence reads, "Parents in Hull have withdrawn their ... daughter from school over inappropriate content in Relationships and Sex Education."

And what, exactly, did these parents find "inappropriate"?

The next paragraph explains, "The decision follows their discovery that the school was using a book entitled 'Grandad's Pride.' The pro-gay propaganda book carries illustrations of homosexual men wearing next to nothing and women posing as men who have undergone surgical mutilation."

Prophetic Revelation: Russian Spacecraft Crash Fulfills Detailed Prophecy

In a recent and astonishing turn of events, a Russian spacecraft's crash into the moon has not only captured the world's attention but has also stirred the hearts of those who believe that God still speaks through prophecy.

Two months before this unprecedented incident, Troy Black, a Christian speaker, received a word from the Lord that remarkably foretold the crash with incredible accuracy.

On June 23, 2023, during a live-streamed message, Black shared his vision of a space shuttle orbiting the Earth, coupled with a message from God: "Rocket ship, a crash landing, an orbital wreck, an Orbiter dislodged and broken open, a shuttle in pieces." These words might have seemed cryptic at the time, but their significance would soon become clear. {eo}
