Cindy Jacobs, Prophetic Elders Rebuke False Trump Prophecy

Prophetic ministry leaders Cindy Jacobs and Bishop Bill Hamon have rebuked a false Trump prophecy that spoke about the judgment of America, as well as the Leviathan spirit in conjunction with it.

In a recent Zoom call of the Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders, Cindy Jacobs, Bishop Bill Hamon, Jennifer LeClaire and James Goll came together to provide their public statement on this false prophecy.

"From the Apostolic Council of Prophetic Elders targeting president Donald Trump and America," the statement began. "The ACPE was initially convened after several questionable national level words were released, prophetic words that cause great confusion with the body of Christ. As the Council of Prophetic Elders, our intent remains to hear the Word of the Lord together and seek God's wisdom."

Judge Juan Merchan Adjourns Trump Case

Judge Juan Merchan has adjourned President-elect Donald Trump's falsified business records case.

The decision comes the day when Merchan was expected to rule on Trump's sentencing.

Some reports suggest the case has not been adjourned, however. The wire announcing the adjournment was “based on an automated schedule alert sent out by the court that stemmed from a court email from last week saying that all future dates had been stayed,” Fox News reported.

Prophetic Discovery in the Hebrew Letters

Evangelist Perry Stone delves into a unique blend of biblical numerology and U.S. politics in a recent YouTube video, connecting Hebrew letters and their numerical values to the presidency of Donald Trump. Stone describes his findings as both “stunning” and indicative of divine intervention in the nation’s affairs.

Stone begins by revisiting the 2016 presidential election, where Trump became the 45th president of the United States. Drawing on his expertise in Hebrew studies, Stone explains that Hebrew letters carry numerical values, and the numbers 40 and five correspond to the letters “Mem” and “He,” respectively. Together, they form the Hebrew word “Ma,” which translates to “what.” Stone recalls the widespread astonishment following Trump’s victory, saying, “My prediction on the election of 2016 was people after the election will say, ‘What? How did this happen?’” He notes that even Fox News anchor Megyn Kelly echoed this sentiment the next day, stating, “What? How did this happen?”

Stone ties this insight to a prophecy he shared in his 2021 book, where he likened Trump’s presidency to the biblical story of Nebuchadnezzar in Daniel 4. In the prophecy, Trump is symbolized as a tree cut down but with roots left in the ground. Stone elaborates, “The Trump stump and roots are deep in the soil of America, and in time, with humility and wisdom, he will either return to an important position, form a new political party or watch a new tree grow out of the Trump stump."
