Did AOC Just Accept Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior?

Did Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez accept Jesus as her Lord and Savior?

Jose Riesco, who goes by Jose The Evangelist online, posted on his TikTok, Instagram and Facebook accounts a photo and a statement that he had the privilege of speaking to the New York representative in the Ronald Reagan Airport where the two discussed Jesus.

"Praise the LORD! Let us pray for our sister Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez who I just led to faith in the LORD JESUS CHRIST and prayed for her at Ronald Reagan International Airport, Washington, D.C.," the evangelist wrote on Facebook.

Aliens or Nephilim? Harvard Speculates They're Here on Earth

Harvard scientists appear to be stumbling onto a discovery Nephilim experts like L.A. Marzulli have been speaking on for decades.

In a recent paper released by Harvard University and Montana Technological University, the two groups surmise that there could be a hidden, technologically advanced race of beings living undetected on Earth.

According to biblically based researchers such as Marzulli, they have been here since almost the beginning: in the form of the Nephilim mentioned in the Bible, book of Enoch and other literary devices, and fallen angels.

Sean Feucht Goes to Legal Battle for Free Speech

“Let Us Worship” leader Sean Feucht is going to legal battle with the city of Spokane, Washington for the sake of free speech.

Sean Feucht has filed a lawsuit against the city of Spokane for what he believes was a violation of freedom of religion and expression, according to Inlander.

Last year, the city passed a resolution condemning Feucht’s event where Nadine Woodward, the city’s former mayor, came on stage to pray with Feucht and a former state representative, Matt Shea.
