Emma Stark's 2025 Prophetic Word: From Dismantling to Establishing

What is the Lord saying about the year 2025?

As Christians around the world press in to seek the presence of God for what He wants to do in this next year, some prophetic voices like Emma Stark are sharing what they've heard.

"Dismantling to establishing," Stark states, "That is the word of the Lord."

Red Heifer Ceremony Update: What You Need to Know

Are we getting closer to the prophetic red heifer ceremony?

In an exclusive interview with Charisma Media, Byron Stinson gave an update on the red heifer ceremony, and what we need to be on the lookout for next.

Stinson had the privilege of bringing five red heifers from Texas to Jerusalem in hopes that the prophetic ceremony would soon take place, in preparation for the ushering in of the Third Temple.

First Christmas: A Pentecost Moment

Some Christians are notorious for downplaying the Holy Spirit. Many churches lock Him in a box of tradition or just ignore Him. Others treat the third person of the Trinity as if He magically appeared in the book of Acts like a genie from a bottle and then disappeared after the early church was established. And strict cessationists completely deny that the Spirit works in miraculous ways today.

Yet Luke, who recorded the account of Pentecost in the book of Acts, paid close attention to the work of the Holy Spirit in the Gospel that bears his name. That's why the book of Luke is sometimes called "the Pentecostal Gospel." Regent University theologian Graham Twelftree says Luke "has more to say about the Spirit than any other biblical writer does."

Luke did not limit the Spirit's activity to the miracles of Jesus or the divine interruption of Pentecost. He made it clear in his account of Jesus' birth that the Christmas story was initiated by the Holy Spirit and fully bathed in His power. We should pay closer attention to the Spirit's work. There would be no Christmas without the Holy Spirit.
