John Ramirez Exposes The Price of Temptation

In one of his latest messages, Evangelist John Ramirez exposed the price behind temptation as he asks one of the most important questions about the enemy's tactics: "What is he tempting you with?"

"Temptation comes with a price," Ramirez said. "What is the price of your temptation? Temptation comes with a price because the biggest weapon the devil [has] against the body of Christ is temptation."

Ramirez warns that just as in the biblical stories we see about angels falling from heaven after Satan's temptation, Adam's fall into sin and Peter's denial of Jesus three times, we too are tempted by the devil to fall for his schemes that lead to destruction.

To put it briefly, demons are expelled through deliverance, strongholds are brought down through discipline and curses are broken by decree. When we learn how to take down each of these facets, we can experience personal and community-wide revival.

In all three facets of deliverance ministry, that authority is given by Jesus through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit. While a person afflicted by demons or evil spirits requires deliverance—casting them out in Jesus’ name—those dealing with strongholds must apply greater discipline to dismantle them.

Texas Man Removed from School Board Meeting For Reading Provocative School Library Book

A Texas man was removed from a school board meeting last week after reading excerpts from LGBTQ sexually-laden book, “Flamer,” which has been available to children in that area.

As soon as the man reading the contents of the book read the explicit content, he was asked to stop talking by the board.

In a video on X posted by Carlos Turcios, you can hear “Thank you, sir,” only 14 seconds in from when the citizen started reading on page one. {eo}
