Jonathan Cahn Smashes Altar of Ishtar

In a powerful display of spiritual warfare, author and speaker Rabbi Jonathan Cahn led a prophetic act on the National Mall, where he smashes an altar of Ishtar, symbolizing the breaking of demonic strongholds in America. This act is part of his broader message on repentance, deliverance and spiritual freedom from the forces of darkness gripping the nation.

Speaking at the gathering, Cahn draws parallels between the Yom Kippur scapegoat and the spiritual battle faced today, stating, "At the end of Yom Kippur, the sins are laid on the scapegoat, and the scapegoat carries it out of the land. The darkness is cast out of the land."

Cahn emphasizes that the battle is not against individuals but spiritual principalities, citing the ancient pagan deity Ishtar (also known as Ashtaroth in the Bible) as a manifestation of immorality in our culture. "You women of God, you are Esther," he declares. "And Esther cancels out Ishtar—the sexual immorality that enslaves this culture, that has led to the destruction of marriages, families and life."

Wall Street Journal Mocks Christian Leader for Saying Election Is a Spiritual Battle

The Wall Street Journal took an apparent mocking tone in a front-page story it published about popular Christian speaker Lance Wallnau and his fellow believers who are supporting Donald Trump's candidacy.

The article was titled, "The Evangelicals Calling for 'Spiritual Warfare' to Elect Trump."

Wallnau posted it Thursday on social media platform X with the caption, "Oh Boy. Front page of Wall Street Journal. Lincoln said: 'I feel like the man who was tarred and feathered and ridden out of town on a rail. To the man who asked him how he liked it, he said: 'If it wasn't for the honor of the thing, I'd rather walk.'"

Donald Trump Issues Ominous Warning About World War III

I have no idea why this isn't getting more attention. Israeli tanks are literally rolling into southern Lebanon right now. When you send tanks in, you aren't just conducting "localized raids." A lot of people don't seem to understand that this is it. The IDF has initiated a ground operation in southern Lebanon, and according to Hezbollah this means that there will be all-out war. In other words, we just crossed the point of no return. Interestingly, Donald Trump just told a crowd at a campaign rally in California that he was concerned that we could "end up in a world war" in the next few months.

U.S. Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump is worried that World War III could break out in the next four months due to the policies of the Democrats leading the U.S. government.

"I actually worry about the next three months. I really do. I worry about the next three and a half four months will end up in a world war because of this, the people that we have [in government]," he said at a rally in the state of California.
