Jonathan Cahn: 'The Fig Tree is Beginning to Blossom Again'

If you are at all familiar with the Bible, Jonathan Cahn says, you're familiar with the story of Jesus cursing the fig tree in Matthew 21. Jesus cursed the fig tree because He was hungry and found no fruit on it, only leaves.

Cahn said in a recent sermon there is a parallel between the fig tree and Israel, which for nearly two millennia, failed to produce the spiritual fruit that God so dearly desired. But then came the reestablishment of Israel as a nation in 1948, and Cahn says that the tree has returned.

And, he says, it—meaning Israel—is beginning to grow as God intended.

What Happens to Believers After the Rapture?

In a recent interview with Bishop Alan DiDio, Pastor Jimmy Evans delves into the profound concept of the Tribulation and the significance of comprehending the timing of the rapture in Christian eschatology.

With an emphasis on bringing clarity to these end times questions facing many believers today, Evans provides a compelling perspective that instills a sense of hope within the Christian community.

The Tribulation: A Time of Unimaginable Chaos

Evans paints a vivid picture of the Tribulation, describing it as a period of unparalleled suffering and upheaval. Drawing from biblical passages, he stresses that the Tribulation will be nothing short of “hell on Earth.” He cites Scriptural references from the book of Revelation to depict the gruesome judgments and calamities that will befall humanity during this period.

Chuck Pierce: A War Is Coming Over the Great Harvest Field

✖ At the recent Proceed Conference at Tim Sheets’ Oasis Church in Ohio, Prophet Chuck Pierce told those in attendance that great harvest always creates war.

And, Pierce says, Christians need to get ready because God is on the verge of bringing about “one of the greatest harvest times we have ever known.”

“There is going to be a war over the harvest field,” Pierce says. “At every key gate in this harvest, there is a war. The Lord has said, ‘I am ready for my people to journey to their land of prosperity. They need to know that I have gathered them in this place to tell them that I am read for them to journey to their promise and their land of prosperity.’” {eo}
