Megachurch Pastor Launches AI Prayer App

Megachurch Pastor Ron Carpenter has released a preview of a brand-new app that could change everything relating to the power of prayer.

Carpenter is known for his role as the pastor of Redemption Church in Greenville, South Carolina, and San Jose, California. Now, Carpenter is taking the power of prayer for his congregants into an entirely new realm: the world of artificial intelligence.

The Google Play Store description of the app says: "The Ron Carpenter Ministries Advanced Archive app is a unique place where people from every background, race and walk of life come together in a place of community and purpose. This resource is dedicated to seeing people's lives changed and leaders equipped. Get ready to change your mindset, master your feelings, and overcome life's pressures. Transcend traditional time and access barriers by enabling 1-on-1 personalized interactions not possible before now."

Amanda Grace Unveils Her Prophetic Word for 2025

What is the Lord saying to His people about the year 2025?

In an exclusive interview with Charisma Media, prophetic voice Amanda Grace spoke about what the Lord has planted on her heart for what we can expect to see in the coming year.

One of the things that Grace points to that the church must do right now during the time before President-elect Donald Trump ascends to office is pray for unity within the government, his cabinet and for the body of Christ. Seeking to divide our nation in the coming days is exactly what the wicked enemy would love, but the prayers of the righteous can and will prevail much. As the enemy comes to steal, kill and destroy, she notes that 2025 will be year where God comes to bring life and life more abundantly to his people.

Remarkable NASA Christmas Message Still Resonates 56 Years After Apollo 8

In December 1968, NASA launched the first manned mission to the moon. No one, not even the astronauts aboard, was certain that they'd be able to return safely. Their journey, the most hazardous and dangerous ever embarked upon, took them to the boundaries of another world, and, even more remarkably, brought peace to their own.

It was shortly after 5:30 a.m. on Christmas Eve that something remarkable happened. After spotting the barren, far side of the moon for the first time, the astronauts onboard captured a photo that has since become known as "Earthrise." For all the turmoil, tragedy and political tumult the world had experienced during 1968, this iconic, indelible image captured the beauty and fragility of our home planet.

And then, with more than one billion people watching around the world on television, the astronauts delivered a message to the largest audience in human history. It was a sentiment for all mankind and one straight from the pages of the Bible. As the nation waited in prayerful consideration, astronauts Frank Borman, Jim Lovell and Bill Anders spoke the following words:
