Messianic Rabbi: The Real Reason I Celebrate the Day of Trumpets

Every year at this time, a well-meaning Christian friend will ask me, "Why do you still celebrate the Feast of Trumpets?"

I know that they are not saying this to be offensive, or to be attacking my faith. These friends know that I am a Messianic Jew and, as such, I believe that Yeshua is the Messiah. In truth, it is the fact that I believe that Yeshua is the Messiah that causes these friends to ask the question. They are wondering why I would continue keeping these Jewish Holy Days if Yeshua fulfilled the Law and we are now in the New Covenant.

It is because I get asked this question every year that I thought I would write out my answer today, and I don't think my answer will be the answer that you are expecting.

3 Ways to Grow and Multiply the Empowering Anointing in Your Life

As the empowering anointing grows and multiplies, the gift of faith begins to operate. I wrote earlier about the different kinds of faith: the measure of faith is given with salvation, the fruit of faith is the result of salvation and the gift of faith is the gift of ministry. That's when God is using you in ministry.

We see this progression in the book of Acts. In Acts 2:47, Scripture shows us that the Lord added, in Acts 6:1 He multiplied, and in Acts 6:7 He multiplied greatly. So there is growth in the empowering anointing. We go from addition to multiplication to great multiplication. After that we don't even read about head counts or numbers. The Scripture just says multitudes, multitudes, multitudes. Why? Because now it was a massive ocean of believers. That's how the empowering anointing grows—it goes from addition to multiplication to great multiplication.

Here are some things that can cause the empowering anointing to increase and intensify.

Just as different legal terms produce different results in a courtroom, the same is true with the kingdom of God. Knowing these terms will allow the believer to know how to approach God and get the results they're looking for in Christ.

Here are the different legal categories connected to the courtroom of heaven. You will find these terms all through Scripture.
