YWAM Founder Loren Cunningham Stricken With Stage 4 Cancer

Loren Cunningham, who founded the Youth With a Mission Ministry more than 62 years ago, has been stricken with Stage 4 lung cancer. His wife, Darlene, posted this notice on Instagram this week:

"Thank you so much for your prayers for Loren and his health. As you know, doctors did a biopsy on some very slow-growing nodules in his lungs earlier this month, when they got large enough to biopsy. They turned out to be cancerous, which led us back to Honolulu for a full body scan on February 22.

"The results from that scan have just come in, revealing that there is extensive cancer in Loren's lungs, bones and lymph system (stage 4 cancer)."

Messianic Rabbi Kirt Schneider had a burning message in his heart that he felt the Lord wanted delivered to His people and shared it on his program, "Discovering the Jewish Jesus."

"I do believe that before the return of the Lord, we will see pockets of revival," Schneider explained in reference to Asbury. {eoa}
