Pastor Arrested After Horrific Discovery in Church Bathroom

A pastor has been arrested after a disturbing discovery in his church, a find that now appears to be a disgusting violation of his former congregation's trust.

The 37-year-old worship pastor at a Brighton, Michigan, branch of the 2|42 Community Church, Will Johnson, was arrested Friday after a member of the staff discovered a camera hidden in a bathroom.

The camera was turned over to church leadership, to whom Johnson allegedly made a shocking confession.

Alan DiDio: The Spiritual Warfare Coming in October

Are we getting ready to experience a greater level of spiritual warfare?

In a new fall 2024 prediction video, Bishop Alan DiDio discussed what we can expect to come as we enter into the Jewish fall festivals and how Christians should approach the impending date of Halloween next month.

"We are entering into a very fractious, dark season in regard to spiritual warfare right now as we head into the fall," DiDio says after sharing surfaced clips of Democrats calling for violence against Trump.

Second Wave of Explosions Rocks Hezbollah to the Core

Wednesday saw even more chaos consume the terrorist organization known as Hezbollah.

In the wake of Tuesday's unprecedented pager explosions, which have led to 12 deaths and nearly 3,000 injured according to Reuters, a new round of explosions went off again across Lebanon.

Middle East news agency Al Jazeera reports that the devices were Icom F82 radios, and it is currently believed they were compromised in the same way as the pagers Hezbollah used.
