

Morning Rundown: Pastor Pays High Price for Sharing the Gospel

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Pastor Pays High Price for Sharing the Gospel

When the Word of God is spoken among the lost, people's souls recognize the truth held within it as their hearts hear the words of their Creator.

So, when a pastor was invited to a theological debate and began teaching on the uniqueness of Christ and His victory on the cross, salvations shortly followed.

Sources claim that during the debate, Pastor Arthur Asadi Babi, 42, led 37 people to the Lord, many being of Muslim faith in Mbale, Uganda.

WATCH: Prophecy Fulfilled as Voters Oust Chicago Mayor

Late Tuesday night, a friend of Tony Suarez's text him with the news that Chicago Mayor Lori Lightfoot's bid for a second term had failed. He was stunned with the news.

 A pastor and the Chief Operating Officer of the National Hispanic Christian Leadership Conference, Suarez had prophesied in September 2022 that Lightfoot, the first openly gay person to lead the city, would not serve a second term. Lightfoot lost her Democratic primary for the mayor's office Tuesday to Paul Vallas and Brandon Johnson, who will meet in a runoff in April for the position.

When he received the text, he went straight to the Chicago Tribune's website to affirm what Darryl Hooper had told him.

Former Satanist John Ramirez: Defeating Sickness with Spiritual Warfare Prayers

Living a life serving God and His purposes isn't always sunshine and rainbows.

In fact, the more you seek to advance God's kingdom on earth, the more spiritual warfare you will face in your life.

Former Satanist John Ramirez shares what he has learned over the years to defeat Satan in times of warfare. {eoa}

Bring Charisma magazine home with a subscription today!