Pastor Tony Evans Embraces New Chapter with Engagement Announcement

Renowned pastor Dr. Tony Evans, the leader of Oak Cliff Bible Fellowship (OCBF) in Dallas, has revealed his engagement to Dr. Carla Crummie, marking a significant chapter in his life nearly four years after the loss of his beloved wife, Lois.

This heartfelt announcement, made during a recent OCBF service, calls for the congregation's prayers during what Dr. Evans describes as a "sensitive time."

Dr. Evans, an influential figure in the Christian community, author and seasoned speaker, turned to his faith and the support of his family as he shared this deeply personal news.

Jesus' Prophetic Words: Are These Earthquakes, Storms and Fires More Signs of the End Times?

In recent weeks, the world has witnessed a relentless barrage of historic natural disasters, prompting many to ponder the reasons behind this alarming trend.

From devastating wildfires in Maui to the fierce onslaught of Hurricane Hilary upon southern California, the destruction wrought by Hurricane Idalia along Florida's Gulf Coast, and the looming threat of Hurricane Lee menacing the East Coast, it appears that our planet is reeling under the weight of unprecedented catastrophe.

However, these catastrophic events are not confined to raging storms and wildfires; we are also witnessing a surge in powerful earthquakes across the globe, echoing the prophetic words of Jesus about the end times (Matt. 24:7-8; Mark 13:7-9; Luke 21:11).

NFL 'Man of God' Shocks Post-Game Media by Preaching Mini Sermon

NFL player Demario Davis testified about the goodness of God on Sunday after his daughter survived "the worst seizure" she ever experienced, encouraging fans facing hard times to "lay it before the Lord and trust."

The New Orleans Saints linebacker preached a mini sermon during a press conference, taking time to share with the fans and the media about the importance of having a relationship with Jesus Christ.

"We play this game on Sundays and it's really the Lord's day. And the day we should be worshipping the Lord, a lot of times, players are getting so many of us didn't get to go to church today, I have a word I want to share." {eo}
