

Morning Rundown: Pope Francis: 'All Religions Are a Path to God'

Here's a quick rundown of the top stories on :

Pope Francis: 'All Religions Are a Path to God'

"I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me," (John 14:6).

For the past 2,000 years, the words of Jesus as the way, the truth and the life have rung throughout the world, and that it is only by Him that anyone can truly experience eternal life. However, Pope Francis is no longer clinging to these words as the truth.

In his visit to Singapore, Pope Francis said that "all religions are a path to God," according to the Christian Post.

Breaking News. Spirit-Filled Stories. Subscribe to Charisma on YouTube now!

Was the Second Trump Assassination Attempt Prophesied?

After the second assassination attempt on President Trump just occurred, here are the things you need to know about the incident and the prophecies which may have acted as a forewarning of what was to come.

- The alleged gunman is 58-year-old Ryan Wesley Routh.

According to Fox News, Routh is listed as living in Hawaii, and is originally from North Carolina. Since the 1990s, Routh has faced multiple run-ins with the police, including for drug possession. Back in 2002, Routh went on a three-hour stand-off with the police after a traffic stop where he placed his hand on his gun before taking off and barricading himself in the office at his roofing company. Routh had an AK-47, two backpacks and a go-pro camera with him as Trump was playing on the fifth hole of the course at Trump International Golf Club.

- Trump updated America on his safety.

Trump made sure to update Americans of his safety following the events on Sunday.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up to date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

'Biblical Archaeology Society' Claims Genesis Creation Account Is a 'Myth'

Is Genesis a record of true history, given by God, or was it written by men trying to answer the questions that plague our world? An article I saw recently [from the Biblical Archaeology Society] makes the latter claim—that Genesis is just a compilation of etiological myths finally written down by the biblical authors.

Now, what is an “etiological myth”? The article answers this way: “The creation stories in Genesis served to provide answers to why the world was the way it was, such as why people wear clothes and why women experience pain during childbirth.” So according to this view, Genesis is myth but that doesn't mean it's not “true,” as myths “are stories that convey and reinforce aspects of a culture's worldview: many truths.”

In support of this view, the article claims that the Bible has three different creation accounts: Genesis 1, Genesis 2 and “a third version alluded to elsewhere in the Bible, a myth of the primordial battle between God and the forces of chaos known as Leviathan (e.g., Psalm 74), Rahab (Psalm 89), or the dragon (Isaiah 27; 51)."

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!