Prophetic Word Fulfilled? Chris Reed's Vision and the Death of Jimmy Carter

On Jan. 21, 2023, during an appearance on "The Lance Wallnau Show," Chris Reed of Chris Reed Ministries unveiled a prophetic word that he had not shared publicly until that moment. Now, with the recent passing of former President Jimmy Carter and plans for his state funeral on Jan. 9, 2024, Reed's vision has sparked renewed interest among believers seeking to understand its implications.

Reed began his revelation by stating, "I've shared this with my team. This is the first time I've shared this publicly, so this is a new prophecy. I shared this with Rick [Joyner], I shared this with others." According to Reed, the vision came to him in a supernatural encounter with the Lord in the second week of January 2023.

"I was taken into the Capitol rotunda in Washington, D.C.," he recounted, emphasizing that this was not a physical experience but a "transvision." The rotunda, famously a place where prominent political figures lie in state after their deaths, became the setting for a significant scene.

New Age or Biblical? The Truth About Manifestation

The concept of “manifestation” is everywhere, from social media influencers to everyday conversations. Declared Cambridge Dictionary’s 2024 Word of the Year, its cultural relevance cannot be ignored. But beneath its trendiness lies a deeper question: What does manifestation truly mean? And more importantly, is it a practice aligned with light or darkness?

In a recent Charisma Media video, three prominent voices in Christian ministry—Joseph Z, Alan DiDio and Pastor Brian Gibson—unpacked the spiritual implications of manifestation. Their insights reveal a stark divide between practices rooted in biblical truth and those veering into New Age or even demonic realms.
