TD Jakes Embattled in Another Lawsuit

Bishop T.D. Jakes has found himself embattled in another legal suit amid the discussions about the Sean "Diddy" Combs list, a terrifying health scare and a separate defamation suit.

Jakes had his attorney, Dustin Pusch, move to file a subpoena against Google, according to Yahoo Entertainment. The subpoena is meant to go after YouTube due to what Jakes says are AI-created lies against him on different YouTube channels.

The channels reportedly come out of Kenya, South Africa, Pakistan and the Philippines. According to Yahoo, these accounts supposedly made false voiceovers and thumbnails that produced indecent content connecting Jakes to Diddy.

Kim Kardashian Sparks Outrage With 'Demonic' Christmas Video

Kim Kardashian's latest Christmas-themed video has ignited a storm of outrage, and for good reason. The video, which purportedly celebrates the holiday season, is anything but festive. Instead, it unfolds like a surreal fever dream, replete with bizarre imagery that is as irreverent as it is unsettling.

Mary is depicted holding the reins of a donkey, while Jesus, crowned with thorns, appears in scenes laden with blasphemous undertones. The video's inclusion of these figures in such a twisted context, capped off by grossly inappropriate sexual implications involving Santa Claus and a camcorder (played by Macaulay Culkin), is a direct affront to the Christian faith and acceptance of sexual immorality.

This sickening distortion of Christmas is a stark reminder of the lengths to which the enemy of God will go to mock and corrupt the image of Jesus. Satan and his spiritual forces understand that Jesus is “the way, the truth, and the life” (John 14:6). By exploiting influential celebrities like Kardashian to distort and pervert truth about who Jesus really is, they aim to sow confusion and lead people astray. Such actions are not merely offensive; they are a spiritual assault on the truth of God’s Word and the sanctity of Jesus’ Lordship.

Actor Denzel Washington Gets Baptized, Rededicating Life to Jesus

Actor Denzel Washington took a major step in his walk with the Lord over the weekend, getting baptized and receiving his minister’s license.

The “Gladiator II” star participated in a water baptism at the Kelly Temple Church of God in Christ in Harlem, New York City, on Saturday, conducted by Archbishop Christopher Bryant.

Bryant shared that Washington attended the church as a young child and was “filled with the Holy Spirit after visiting another church with actor Robert Townsend in the 80’s.”
