

Morning Rundown: Teen Ex-Witch Finds Freedom From 'Torment' After Collapse on Church Doorstep

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

Teen Ex-Witch Finds Freedom From 'Torment' After Collapse on Church Doorstep

Witchcraft... astral projection... and a deal with the devil. Seventeen-year-old Victoria Batiste was heavily steeped in the occult, and her dive into darkness started when she began hearing strange voices when she was five years old.

It started as a little girl when she tried to escape a brutal home life, running to a made-up world where everything was perfect.

"Everything that happened in that world," said Victoria. "I was in control of it."

Survey Reveals Clear Majority of Americans Believe US Was Designed as a Christian Nation

Close to half of Americans—45%—believe the U.S. ought to be a "Christian nation," according to new data collected by the Pew Research Center.

"That is a lot of people," Greg Smith, one of the survey's lead authors, told the Religion News Service. "[But] what people mean when they say they think the U.S. should be a Christian nation is really quite nuanced."

Interestingly, a clear majority of those surveyed—60%—believe the U.S. was, in fact, intended to be a Christian country.

However, only 33% of respondents said the U.S. remains so today.

WATCH: Prophet Tim Sheets Says Transformation is On Its Way to America

Radical changes in government and culture, revival, awakening and transformation—along with a harvest that’s now ripe for reaping—is on its way to America, says apostle and Oasis Church Pastor Tim Sheets.

Standing near the White House in Washington D.C. this week, Sheets delivered a prophetic word that promises multiple victories and outpourings of the Holy Spirit if God’s people will do one key thing.

“Keep praying,” says Sheets. “We’re about to win big victories in Jesus’ name.” {eoa}