Trump's First Cabinet Meeting Prayer: 'Thank You for Anointing Us'

During the Trump administration's first cabinet meeting, something wholesome and righteous took place: prayer.

Before starting the meeting, the president asked for someone to say grace. Former megachurch pastor and now U.S. Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Secretary Scott Turner took the challenge, and prayed for the Lord's anointing and leading to be upon this new presidential administration.

"Father, we thank you for this awesome privilege to be in Your presence," Turner prays. "God thank You that You've allowed us to see. This day, the Bible says that Your mercies are new every morning. And Father God, we give You the glory and honor."

Wife Charged in Shocking Murder Plot of American Missionary

The tragic story of Beau Shroyer, a devoted missionary whose life was taken in a shocking murder-for-hire plot in Angola, has left many grappling with grief, disbelief and sorrow. Now, as reported to The Christian Post, his wife, Jackie Shroyer, has been formally charged in connection with his murder.

Troy M. Easton, lead pastor of the Lakes Area Vineyard Church in Detroit Lakes, Minnesota, where the couple worshipped before moving to Africa, shared the heartbreaking update with the congregation. "It saddens me immensely to have to share with you that we were notified that Jackie has been formally charged as a co-author in the murder of her husband," Easton stated. The weight of this revelation is difficult to bear, especially for the faithful who supported their missionary journey.

Investigators allege that Jackie Shroyer conspired with three men, including Bernardino Elias, a former security guard, who was reportedly involved in a romantic relationship with her. According to authorities, Jackie initially asked Elias to carry out the murder, promising him a substantial sum of money. Elias then recruited two additional men, Isalino Kayoo and Gelson Ramos, to assist in the execution of the crime.
