Was Israeli Airstrike Part of Isaiah 17 Prophecy?

The times are quickening as wars and rumors of wars spread at an accelerated pace.

In less than a week's time, Israel has declared war on Hamas for the terror attack that killed over 1,000 Israelis, with thousands more wounded and hostages taken into Gaza.

In response, Israel has carried out airstrikes while preparing for a ground assault into Gaza to utterly annihilate the Hamas terror organization.

Larry Tomczak: Preparation Time Is Now for Non-Dummies

History records invasions of countries that caught citizens unprepared and resulted in devastating consequences lingering for lifetimes. My father came from Poland and knew how his country was one such victim.

On Sept. 1, 1939, at 4:45 AM, Hitler's once Democrat Socialist Workers Party that morphed into Nazism, launched their blitzkrieg ("lightning war") on an unprepared Poland. A total of 1.5 million troops stormed the nation by land, air and sea.

The Polish people were overwhelmed. German tanks steamrolled into the country; the Luftwaffe bombarded homes, trains and mowed down Poles with vicious staccato machine gun fire. Cities were torched as mothers and children screamed hysterically. In a month, Poland fell as Hitler gleefully celebrated victory and World War II exploded with its death and destruction. {eo}
