

Morning Rundown: What Happened in a Non-Charismatic Church When a Prophetic Preacher Showed Up?

Here's a quick summary of the top stories on :

What Happened in a Non-Charismatic Church When a Prophetic Preacher Showed Up?

Albert Milton wasn't sure what to think when he was invited to Brazil to speak in a non-charismatic church. After all, God had ordained him as a prophetic voice to the nations years ago, so he wasn't sure how his message would be received by the people in that specific church.

The reception he received from the local congregation shocked him—but it was a pleasant surprise.

“People were thrilled, they were full of joy,” says Milton, a pastor, author and prophet. “They were hearing something that they had never heard before. If I had been ministering in a prophetic church, they might have been something that they were already accustomed to hearing. But for this group of people, this is the only message that they had never heard before. That's a huge difference. They had never heard ministering like that before.

Atheist Changes Mind About the Afterlife Following Heavenly Near-Death Experience

Jose Hernandez's experience of dying and coming back to life changed him forever. What he thought was just a void into the darkness turned out to be an afterlife where he received the shock of his life.

Get your FREE CHARISMA NEWSLETTERS today! Stay up-to-date with current issues, Holy Spirit news, Christian teachings, Charisma videos & more!

After having the most peaceful and mesmerizing experience of seeing the heavenly realm, Hernandez saw his father, which completely changed his perspective and mended a broken heart.

"I see a man in the water. He's like knee deep in the water and he's got six children holding on to his right hand in a string, right? In a line. And one child on his left hand," Hernandez said. "And I said, 'Wow, that's pretty amazing! Let me go down and see what that's all about. So I moved down, and maybe I'm about 10 feet away? And he turns around. That was my father.'"

God Convinces Christian Brain Cancer Victim to Keep Her Unborn Baby

Even in the face of death, some individuals find strength in their faith that defies medical expectations and societal norms.

Tasha Kann, a courageous believer from Michigan, exemplifies this remarkable resilience. When faced with a dire diagnosis of an aggressive brain tumor while 20 weeks pregnant, she made a choice that left her doctors astounded and ultimately saved her life and her baby's life: She refused to abort her child.

Tasha Kann's journey began in 2021 when she was struck by a severe headache, which she initially believed was a migraine. Little did she know that this seemingly ordinary headache would unveil a life-altering challenge. {eo}

Join Charisma Magazine Online to follow everything the Holy Spirit is doing around the world!