

Nephilim and the Pyramids: Hidden Signs of the End Times Uncovered!

Is the mystery of the pyramids about to be solved?

Prophetic voice Joseph Z recently shared astonishing revelations about the Great Pyramid of Giza that could reshape our understanding of ancient history.

During a recent broadcast, he discussed new findings announced on March 16 by a team of researchers using synthetic aperture radar Doppler tomography—a cutting-edge, noninvasive technology designed to create high-resolution, 3D images of the pyramid's internal and subsurface structures.

What did they find, you may ask?

The results were nothing short of stunning.

The scans revealed massive, vertical cylindrical wells descending more than 600 meters below the pyramid's base, with structures extending up to 2 kilometers into the earth. Even more astonishing, researchers discovered two cubic formations—each 80 meters in diameter—with intricate spiral pathways, suggesting an advanced engineering system far beyond the capabilities of ancient Egypt.

Z explained how this discovery challenges current theories that the pyramids were built around 2500 BC as tombs. Instead, the newly uncovered structures appear to be part of a mechanical or functional system. Theories range from energy harnessing technology to remnants of a lost pre-Adamic civilization.

“There’s a lot more to this that’s going to be uncovered,” says Z. “That leads into the ancient world theory of Nephilim, it leads into the ancient pre-Adamic civilization discussion or at least maybe it’s just simply that’s what happened after the fall of Adam.”

“Ancient things are being revealed right now,” he says. “They’re coming out, they’re going to continue to come out.”

Z emphasized that while these discoveries are fascinating and potentially world-shaking, they should not unsettle the faith of believers. Instead, he encouraged Christians to stand firm on the unshakable foundation of God’s Word, no matter what new evidence or ancient mysteries emerge.

Every revelation—whether scientific or spiritual—ultimately points back to the Creator, confirming His divine wisdom and sovereignty.
