

‘Night of Terror’: More Than 40 Massacred Inside Haiti Church by Violent Gangs

At least 47 people were killed and more than 22 wounded after armed gang members opened fire inside a church sheltering displaced families in Kenscoff, Haiti, on Sunday night.

Breitbart, citing Haitian newspaper Le Nouvelliste, reported that members of the violent 5 Segonn gang attacked the church in the hillside community overlooking Port-au-Prince. Kenscoff Mayor Jean Massillon told AFP that some victims were killed “execution-style.”
